

EXPERT WITNESS · HIGH SPECIALISATION

Security Expert Reports

When a security failure has legal, financial or reputational consequences, the technical opinion of a qualified expert can be decisive. LAMASSU issues expert reports fully valid before courts, insurers and arbitration panels.

WHO IS THIS FOR?

- Companies involved in legal proceedings
- Insurers and their lawyers
- Companies in arbitration or mediation

DEADLINE / KEY DATA

5-10
working days
Report deadline

WHAT IS INCLUDED?

- ✓ Technical analysis of the security system under review
- ✓ Document review: contracts, security plans, incident records
- ✓ Physical inspection of the facilities involved
- ✓ Assessment of whether the measures matched the required risk level
- ✓ Expert report meeting the requirements of the Civil Procedure Act (LEC)
- ✓ Opinion on causation and possible link to the damage caused
- ✓ Ratification of the report before the court or arbitrator if required
- ✓ Availability to testify as an expert witness at trial or arbitration

REGULATORY FRAMEWORK

LEC Arts. 335-352	Sets the formal requirements of expert opinions: oath, structure and ratification before the court.
Law 5/2014	Qualification as a Security Director gives the technical capacity to issue opinions on private security matters.
Civil Code Art. 1902	Non-contractual civil liability framework applicable to negligence in implementing security measures.
LCS	Insurance Contract Act: applicable when the expert report is used to resolve insurance claims.

WORKING PROCESS

- 01 DAY 1
Engagement and documentation
Receipt of the engagement, NDA signing and review of documentation provided by the client.
- 02 DAY 1-3
Inspection and analysis
Site visit, analysis of security systems and collection of technical evidence.
- 03 DAY 3-8
Report drafting
Drafting of the expert opinion with all formal requirements set by the LEC and case law.
- 04 AS SCHEDULED
Ratification
Appearance before the court, arbitrator or mediator to ratify and defend the expert report.

KEY DELIVERABLES

- Complete expert opinion meeting LEC requirements
- Technical annexes: photographs, plans and supporting documentation
- Executive summary for management and legal representation
- Ratification of the report before the court or arbitrator (included in the engagement)
- Availability for questions and clarifications during the legal process

Would you like more information about this service?

info@lamassu-security.es · www.lamassu-security.es